Prayer of a Catechist

God of life and love,
We lift our hearts to you in praise and thanksgiving.

We bless you for the goodness and beauty of creation, for the rhythm of sunrises and sunsets, for the patterns of color and texture of growing things that sustain our hope in the abundance of what is to come.

We bless you for the landscape of our lives, for our successes and failures, for the friends and enemies who weave a mosaic through our horizon.

We praise you for all your works.

We ask for grateful hearts and a spirit of generosity. Free us from being stingy with our words of praise and affirmation and our acts of forgiveness.

Open us to the abundance of life and love you set before us.

Amen.

Why Be A Catechist?

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque Parish

Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:19-20

becoming a catechist

What is a Catechist

The original meaning of the word catechist is "master" or one that "echoes" the word of God. However, a catechist is more than a teacher who has knowledge of the facts of the Catholic tradition and teachings. A catechist is a "minister" of the church, someone who is commissioned by the community to help spread the faith to children of the parish. A catechist is also a "proclamation" of the Good News of Christ, who assumes that he / she really believes in Christ and therefore teaches with joy and enthusiasm. A catechist is a "mentor" showing children with their own example how to live as a Christian in the celebration of the sacraments, and how to live as Christians in the midst of the frequent conflicts in social values.

We need you!

Every year here at St. Margaret Mary Alacoque Parish we have over 200 people that volunteer to share their faith with our children, youth, young adults and adults. Our classes are conducted in a small group of 15 or fewer students. Previous experience is not necessary. Maybe you do not feel that your faith is strong or deep enough. That's fine. Again and again, new catechists marvel that their faith has been strengthened by their sharing the faith with others. Maybe you're intimidated by what to say or how to teach a group of people who know little about their faith. Do not worry, we will guide you. We have a wonderful and easy-to-use textbook and lesson plans available, with many hints and tips on how to lead each class. There are also many resources in the Office of Religious Education at your disposal.

Many new catechists that decide to teach sign up a friend to teach with them. In fact we recommend team teaching, as two pairs of hands are always better than one. And when one of you can not go to class, there is always another who can be there.

Top Ten Reasons to be a Catechist

1. You will grow in your own faith and deepen your relationship with Jesus.
2. Your baptism calls you to share in Jesus' ministry.
3. More then ever, children, teens, and adults in today's world need to hear the Good News of Jesus.
4. Children, teens, and adults in need to encounter good role models of faith.
5. You have much to share with those you'll teach and you'll have opportunities to share faith with other catechists.
6. Today's catechetical textbooks/ resources offer outstanding support.
7. You'll be challenged, you'll have fun, and you'll make new friends.
8. You'll be helping people deepen their relationship with Jesus (you'll be evangelizing!)
9. You'll be handing on a 2000-year-old Tradition that changes lives.
10. It's our job: Jesus sent us to "go and teach all nations."
